Pune Tourist Spots in Pune In an effort to raise awareness about the city and its people, the Pune Tourist Office has launched a new campaign, which focuses on five landmarks in Pune: Somnath Bhavan, the Yadava Fort, Ramtek Temple, Chinchwad Fort and the Bhondsi Zoo. The main features of the campaign are posters and pamphlets, which have been distributed in the city $\hat{a} \in \mathbb{M}$ s key hotels, railway stations, bus depots, prominent landmarks and shopping centres. Pune is located in Maharashtra, India. It is the headquarters of Pune District. The city is called the "Queen of the Maratha empire". Pune is an important center of education in Maharashtra and other states. It is known for being the home of MS Dhoni as a cricketer, as well as being the base of the Karnataka State cricket team. The native population of Pune is Marathi-speaking. Hindi is the most common language among the professional and educated population of Pune. English is widely spoken, though the young population speak Marathi as well. Other languages are spoken among Pune's immigrant population. Pune is a town and a Municipal Corporation in Pune district in the southern state of Maharashtra, India. It is part of the Pune Metropolitan Region. The name of Pune has been linked with mythological characters Shurpanakha and Pashupati. The city claims to have been the capital of the medieval eponymous nagari and a separate princely state. Pune is the fourth-most populous city in Maharashtra after Mumbai, Nashik and Nagpur, and is the fourth-most populous city in the country as well. The Mumbai-Pune region is one of India's leading economic centres and is one of its fastest growing metropolitan economies. Pune and the Pune Metropolitan Region have a total population of 5,743,041, according to the 2011 census.[5] It is the fourth-largest financial centre in India. History Pune was the capital of an independent state ruled by the Bhosale Gurjar clan. It was under Bajirao II of the Maratha Empire in the later half of the seventeenth century. After the Mughal empire annexed the Maratha kingdom, it's capital was shifted to Salsette. The new city,
